Hi Shari,

Like you, I've spent much of my career providing support services to community members. Booking safe, and if needed, anonymous hotel stays has always been a time-consuming and frustrating process -- hours spent finding available rooms, negotiating with the hotel front desk, scrambling to find an agency credit card, and driving roundtrip to the hotel to check the guest in.

There had to be an easier, better way.

Safe Stays by ReloShare is a new, free-to-use hotel booking website designed to make it faster and easier to book hotel rooms for your clients. Now, Safe Stays users can search for and book rooms at hotels under an alias and with no credit card or ID requirement at check-in. Check out our one-minute video to see what Safe Stays has to offer.
